

Mrs. Evelyn Williams
Spanish Teacher

Mrs. Evelyn Williams was born in Massachusetts. She is a graduate from Central Connecticut State University. In 2005, she and her family relocated to Florida. Mrs. Williams has a wonderful husband, Paul Williams and two amazing sons, Sean-Paul and Evan, which both attended St. Andrew Catholic School and both are graduates from Bishop Verot Catholic High School in Fort Myers.

Mrs. Williams transferred from St. Andrew Catholic School in Cape Coral to move into her new home in Port Charlotte. Mrs. Williams has taught both Spanish and Science in a variety of grades and has over twenty-five years of educational experience. In addition, she was also the STREAM Coordinator in her former school.

Mrs. Williams is extremely passionate about education in general, but enjoys teaching Spanish and its culture. She is excited to continue her journey with St. Charles now that she lives in Port Charlotte.
